Disaggregation Exemption Notification

Following the disaggregation exemption notified to the FSA under the Disclosure and Transparency Rules on 17th October 2011, AXA SA and its subsidiary notifying Group entities, acting independently from their parent and from each other, no longer have any reportable holdings in the Company on a Group aggregated basis.

However, AXA Investment Managers SA has now crossed the 14% threshold and has a holding of 14,44% and 4 243 250 shares on a Group disaggregated basis as an independent Group subsidiary".
